

Leader de l'Innovation Agricole en Afrique de l'Ouest et du Centre
Leading Agricultural Innovation in West and Central Africa

Latest News

An Aquaculture Millionaire at 25

This 25-years old Nigerian today makes millions of Naira and hires six permanent workers as a result of having adopted an approach of farming fish, rice, and poultry simultaneously.

Read more

Early Signs of Boon for Businesses as Seed Laws are Harmonized

The harmonization of regulations across West African countries is already freeing up the circulation of seeds across borders and as a result, significantly improving the bottom line of private businesses.

Read more

The Trending Blue Collar Jobs in Aquaculture

Fish farming is becoming a significant source of employment in communities equipped with best practices in aquaculture in Nigeria. Previously jobless youths have seen incomes increase.

Read more

Private Investments Jolt Fish Feed Production

New forms of public-private partnerships in Nigeria have boosted the availability of critical aquaculture inputs such as fish feed.

Read more

A Gender-Sensitive Technology Uplifts Women's Dignity

An empowerment program led by West Africa Agriculture Productivity Program (WAAPP) in Nigeria has not only boosted women's dignity but even changed their perceptions among men.

Read more

With thanks to

PAIRED | WAAPP | MITA | WebTV | WASIX | FRUIT FLIES

Subscribe | Unsubscribe