LATEST NEWS

40,000 to Benefit from New EU-Funded Project

About 40,000 smallholder farmers from Burkina Faso, Niger, and Senegal will benefit from a new five-year plant breeding program.

Read more

Shortage of Certified Seed in West Africa

According to forecast, there will be a shortfall of certified maize, sorghum, millet, cassava, and groundnuts seeds in the 2020 cropping season.

Read more

Modernizing Sweet Potato Breeding

Actors are meeting to discuss how to modernize sweet potato breeding in West Africa and strengthen the community of practice.

Read more

New Dispensation for Agri R&D in Benin

The formalization of the National Agricultural Research System of Benin opens new opportunities for funding and pooling of resources.

Read more

Chad's ITRAD has a New Director

The new Director-General of the ITRAD is Yassine Daby, appointed recently by President Idriss Déby Itno of Chad.

Read more

Blog: Easing the Burden of COVID-19 on Farmers

COVID-19 is already complicating access to quality seed for farmers. Experts reflect on ways to ease the burden on farmers.

Read more

With Thanks to

Contributors

Editors:
David Akena
Fidélie Boïsso

Editorial Advisers:
Dr. Abdou Tenkouano
Dr. Abdulai Jalloh

Design:
Jimmy Mandabrandjé

PAIRED | WAAPP | MITA | WebTV | FRUIT FLIES

© CORAF 2020 - All right reserved. Unsubscribe here.