

LEADING AGRICULTURAL INNOVATION IN WEST
AND CENTRAL AFRICA

(+221) 33 869 96 18

@ infos@coraf.org

this month
January 2021

Lisez en français

LATEST NEWS

Governing Board Approves 2021 Work Plan

The work program furthers CORAF's strategic mission of boosting prosperity in West and Central Africa.

Read more

CORAF's General Assembly to Hold in Two Phases

Phase one will hold in April 2021 in the form of a virtual business meeting to review the governance structures and manuals.

Read more

IITA Head Elected to World Academy of Sciences

This election offers Dr. Sanginga a global platform to address the pressing challenges of hunger, disease, and poverty in developing countries.

Read more

CORAF & AKADEMIYA2063 to Support Africa's Food Agenda

Increasing food productivity would require sound data and evidence-based analysis. This is central to the MoU between both institutions.

Read more

Opportunities

CORAF is hiring for a new project funded by the Swiss Cooperation. Join us if you seek to make zero hunger a reality by 2030.

Read more

OUR SIX PICKS FROM 2020

Our Six Picks from 2020

Challenging as it was, we plowed through the COVID-19 pandemic successfully. Here are the main highlights of our year in 2020.

Read more

FROM OUR RESEARCH HUBS (NCOS)

Every month, we shall share news about innovations from our regional centers of excellence and their impacts on beneficiaries.

The Trending Nigerian Blue Collar Jobs in Aquaculture

40-years old Alahji Rilwan Monai of Niger State, Nigeria, is one of the youths making fish farming a profitable business. Read on.

Read more

Early Signs of Boon for Businesses as Laws are Harmonized

From a month, Nigeria's seed company, Da-Allgreen Seeds Limited now delivers seeds to Nigeria and Ghana in under two weeks.

Read more

With Thanks to

Contributors

Editors:

David Akana
Bilal Taïrou

Editorial Advisers:

Dr. Abdou Tenkouano
Dr. Abdulai Jalloh

Design:

Jimmy Mandabrandja

PAIRED | WAAPP | MITA | WebTV | FRUIT FLIES