

Leader de l'Innovation Agricole en Afrique de l'Ouest et du Centre
Leading Agricultural Innovation in West and Central Africa

Latest News

Africa's Agriculture Loses a Champion

"This is a mighty loss of someone who wanted to see Africa transformed, prosperous and strong," says the Board Chair of CORAF, an institution Mr. Toure worked tirelessly for its development.

Read more

Mango Exports on the Rise

After regaining significant control of the pesky little fruit fly, mango exports are once again on the rise in Burkina Faso and across West Africa.

Read more

Boon for Businesses as Seed Laws are Harmonized

Enterprises in West Africa are now delivering seeds across borders quicker and in larger quantities as a regional rule allowing the free movement of people and vital goods sets in.

Read more

Research Stimulates Plantain Cultivation

Science has churned out in the past decades, high-yielding disease-resistant plantain hybrids. Adoption experiences in some West African countries show encouraging results.

Read more

Seed Alliances Benefitting Smallholders

As the multiple actors involved in the seed sector in West Africa reinforce their collaboration and expand activities to the private sector, so are smallholder farmers starting to reap the fruits.

Read more

West Africa's Agri-Inputs Strategy shapes up

Actors are working on an integrated regional strategy for the sustainable management of agricultural inputs. They hope this plan might spur a 50kg/hectare use across West Africa.

Read more

With thanks to

PAIRED | WAAPP | MITA | WebTV | WASIX | FRUIT FLIES

Subscribe | Unsubscribe