

LEADING AGRICULTURAL INNOVATION IN WEST
AND CENTRAL AFRICA

(+221) 33 869 96 18

infos@coraf.org

Lisez en français

LATEST NEWS

UEMOA Reaffirms Support to Agriculture

The West African Economic and Monetary Union (UEMOA) has praised CORAF for making the cotton, maize, and livestock sectors competitive.

Read more

Cotton, Maize, & Livestock Sectors Revitalized

According to a new report, the West African cotton, maize, livestock, aquaculture, and poultry sectors are more competitive and yield higher income for smallholder farmers.

Read more

CORAF's Revised Work Plan Approved

The Governing Board of CORAF has approved the revised work plan. The amended work plan moves some of CORAF's operations online to circumvent the COVID-19-related travel restrictions.

Read more

CORAF holds its 28th Session of the Governing Board

The 28th Session of the Governing Board of CORAF took place online from July 14-16, 2020. The meeting was chaired by Dr. Ângela Maria Pereira Barreto da Veiga Moreno.

Read more

An Avid Advocate of Rural Africa Dies

Dr. Dominique Hounkonnou, a prominent and respected scientist who championed the cause of the underprivileged people of his native Benin and across Africa, has died.

Read more

Project Creates Opportunities for Youths

Today, West and Central Africa are buzzing with a new set of youth entrepreneurs thanks to the Islamic Development Bank-funded project implemented by CORAF.

Read more

With Thanks to

Contributors

Editors:

David Akana
Fidélia Bohissou

Editorial Advisers:

Dr. Abdou Tenkouano
Dr. Abdulai Jalloh

Design:

Jimmy Mandabrandja

PAIRED | WAAPP | MITA | WebTV | FRUIT FLIES

© CORAF 2020 - All right reserved.

Unsubscribe here